

About the expert

Michael Gerr

Michael Gerr studied teaching and art education and has been living with a disability since 1993 after a car accident. He has long been active in the German disability movement and gives lectures as a speaker on human rights-based disability policy. He has been working as a consultant since 2018 and is an advocate for human rights and an inclusive society. In the field of disability policy, he has been active at all levels in the Bündnis 90/DIE GRÜNEN party since 2003. As a city councillor in Würzburg, he was a member of the culture committee as well as the theatre committee.
